

WHAT MAKES A STRONG SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION?

Hint: It's about being yourself.

More than anything else, telling your story and who you are as openly and authentically as possible will make your application the best it can be.

Tips for Essays

The APIA Scholars applications have 4 essay prompts, you need to pick 3 to answer. You have 500 words or less for each essay.

- Brainstorm! Map it out, draw, create bullet points, freewrite– do whatever works for you to get your thoughts on paper at first.
- Spend time on your essays – you may not need all 500 words to answer each, but you will need more than a few sentences.
- Ask family, friends, teachers and others you trust to read over your essays. Do they see the unique and remarkable person you are shine through your answers?
- Make sure to proofread.
 - Read it out loud
 - Sleep and come back to it
 - Read your sentences in reverse order
 - Proofread slowly
 - Ask someone else to read for grammar
- Answer every part of the essay question.
- Avoid generic answers – and avoid thinking your life is generic. Write boldly.

Essay 1: Describe a time you were in a leadership role, how it went, and how your identity might impact how you lead.

Focus on: what you think your leadership style is and what lessons you learned in a leadership role.

Essay 2: Tell us about something you created or built, what the process was like, and what meaning it had.

Focus on: what the process was like, what did you gain from sharing (or not), and what made it valuable to you.

Essay 3: Describe what you want to accomplish in college, why you have these goals and how you plan to achieve them.

Focus on: what you want from college, how you want to get it, and who you want to become.

Essay 4: Discuss an issue of importance to you, why it's important to you, and how your APIA identity might play a part.

Focus on: Something you are passionate about, big or small, and why you are so passionate about it.

Tips for Letters of Recommendation

Letters of recommendation give us an opportunity to learn about you from a different perspective. We want to know a bit of your story from someone who has seen what a remarkable person you are!

- Pick someone who knows you well and can speak to your character as a person and community member.
 - ⇒ A teacher, a supervisor at a job or volunteer position, a coach, a mentor, a spiritual leader are all possibilities. A relative cannot be your recommender.
- Do not wait until the last minute! Ask your preferred recommender as soon as you begin filling out the application.
- Have a backup recommender in mind, if your first choice is unable to submit a letter.
- The recommendation form is online only – make sure your recommender is aware/comfortable with this.
- Double check your recommender's contact information before you put it into your application.
- Check in with your recommender to make sure they have submitted their letter before the deadline.
- Be open to a conversation with your recommender about you, your accomplishments and your goals to help inform their letter.
- Does your recommender need some tips? Visit our Applicant Resources at <https://apiascholars.org>
